

Leadership and commitment checklist

Leadership and commitment check list	YES	NO
Date of review:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ The management is aware of the potentials associated with circular economy and convinced it should invest time and resources into it</li> </ul>
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ The management has agreed to develop a CE plan and strategy</li> </ul>
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Delegation of authority and responsibility has been granted to a circular economy manager</li> </ul>
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ A circular economy team has been developed, representing different roles in the organisation</li> </ul>
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ The resources required to transform to circularity are being made available</li> </ul>
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ The importance of the Circular economy is communicated to all internal staff and key external stakeholders</li> </ul>
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ A vision was collaboratively designed to engage in circular economy</li> </ul>
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Circular economy objectives and actions have been developed and are consistent with the strategic direction of the organization.</li> </ul>
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ A framework was established to ensure the project objectives with the monitoring of key performance indicators.</li> </ul>
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ The management is committed to continuous improvement on its journey to circularity</li> </ul>		